

How to Draw Emily Dickinson

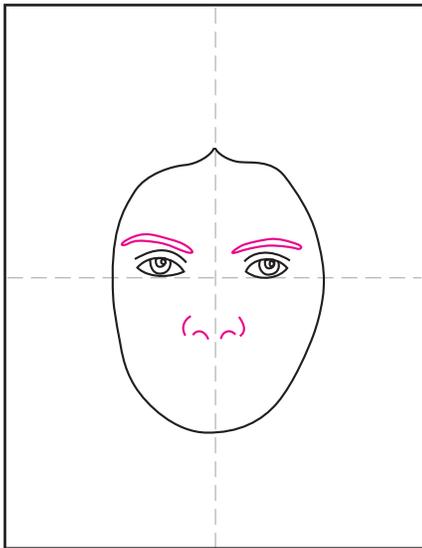

1. Plan the size of the head by making some light marks.

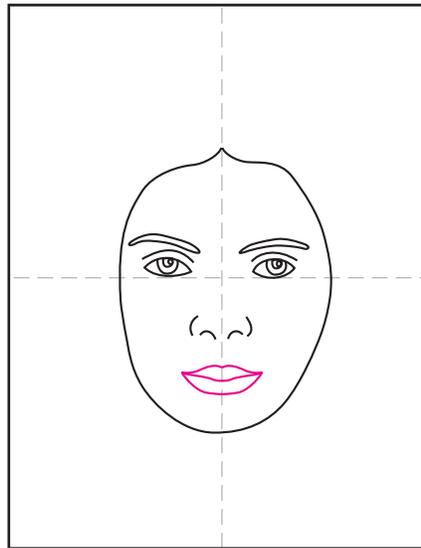

2. Connect the marks to make an oval that has a point on top.

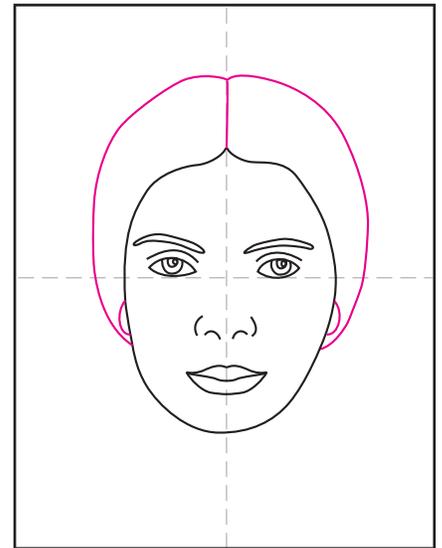

3. Draw two eyes and include the eyelid lines.

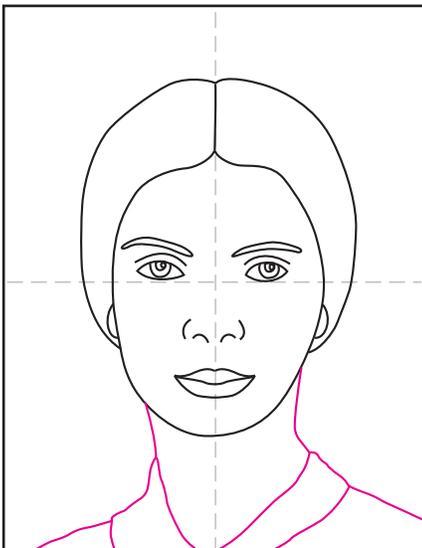

4. Add the eyebrows and the nose that is half way down.

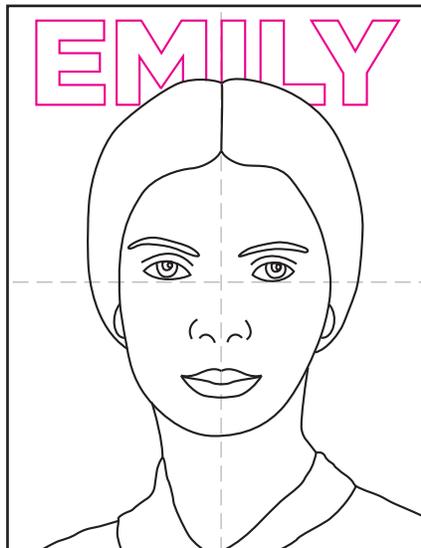

5. Draw the mouth, it should be centered in the space below the nose.

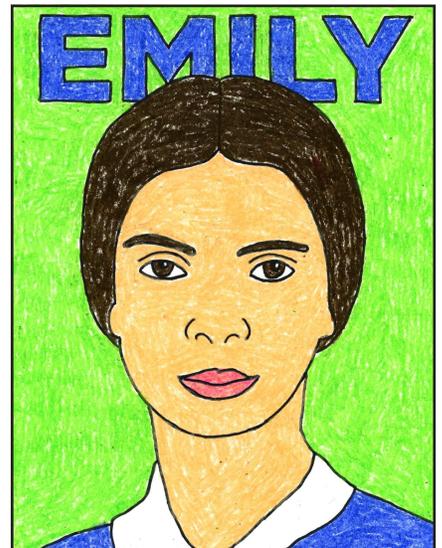

6. Add Emily's bottom of her ears and her pulled back hair.

7. Draw a neck and add her collar and shoulder lines.

8. Add E-M-I-L-Y in big block letters at the top of the page.

9. Trace with a marker and color
